

Automobile repair and maintenance field specified skills evaluation test summary

(1) Exam range

The scope of the test is the following ranges about automobile chassis and engines.

① Theory

- a. Elementary knowledge of structure, function and handling laws
- b. Elementary knowledge of inspection, repair and adjustment
- c. Elementary knowledge of structure, function and handling laws of the tester for maintenance, measuring equipment and tools
- d. Elementary knowledge of nature and methods of materials and fuel oils

② Practical

- a. Simple basic work
- b. Disassembly, assembly, simple inspection and adjustment
- c. Simple repair
- d. Handling of simple maintenance tester, measuring equipment and tools

(2) Format, number of questions and test time of specified skills evaluation test

The test format is CBT (Computer Based Testing), and the number of questions and test time are as follows.

① Type, number of questions and examination time of Theory

- a. The question format is true / false (○ ×)
- b. The number of questions are 30 and the test time is 60 minutes.

② Type, number of tasks and examination time of Practical

- a. The format of the questions is based on several judgment tests to make correct distinctions and judgments about several tasks under the work tests and the situation of using figures and illustrations.
- b. The number of tasks are 3 (9 questions in total) and the test time is 20 minutes.

(3) Passing criteria

Theory : 65% and over for the test

Practical : 60% and over for the test

*You need to pass both tests.

(4) Notification method of pass / fail

The ID number of those who pass the test will be announced on the JASPA website within 30 days after the test.

Certificate is issued upon the request of the accepting organization which the applicant enters into an employment contract with.